

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED
ACCOUNTANTS
IN ENGLAND AND WALES

American Accounting Association annual meeting 3-6 August 2008, Anaheim, CA

The ICAEW is proud to participate in the AAA 2008 annual meeting and is contributing to the following five panel sessions

Exploring stakeholder expectations of audit

Monday, August 4, 10.15 am – 11.45 am

Panel: Marty Baumann (PCAOB), Bob Colson (Grant Thornton), Robert Hodgkinson (ICAEW), Bill Kinney (McCombs School of Business), Mark Peecher (University of Illinois).

Promoting integrity in business: the role of the accounting profession

Monday, August 4, 2.00 pm – 3.30 pm

Panel: Richard Baker (Adelphi University), Jeffrey Diermeier (CFA Institute), Robert Hodgkinson (ICAEW), John Thornton (Washington State University), Paul Williams (North Carolina State University).

The changing role of the finance function

Monday, August 4, 4.00 pm – 5.30 pm

Panel: James Dibbo (BT Americas), Robert Hodgkinson (ICAEW), Anthony Hopwood (Saïd Business School), Rhonda Longmore-Grund (Ingram Micro Inc), Kenneth Merchant (University of Southern California), Vijay Sathe (Claremont Graduate University).

The debate on intangibles: the contribution of research

Tuesday, August 5, 2.00 pm – 3.30 pm

Panel: Robert Hodgkinson (ICAEW), Christopher Ittner (Wharton), Robert Laux (Microsoft), Suresh Radhakrishnan (University of Texas at Dallas), Douglas Skinner (University of Chicago).

Developing a better understanding of the relationship between IT and an organisation's value

Wednesday, August 6, 2.00 pm – 3.30 pm

Panel: Bruce Dehning (Chapman University), Michael Cangemi (FEI), Robert Hodgkinson (ICAEW), Kevin Kobelsky (Baylor University) Paul Miranti (Rutgers Business School).

If you are attending this year's annual meeting please do come and join us at these panel sessions. Confirmation of the venue and room for each session will be listed in the AAA printed programme.